and borne, and is alwayes veed in comparison with a bastated, only to show a difference betweene them. As for example, A man hath a sonne of a woman before mariage, and that is called a baffard, and vnlawfull:
and after hee marieth the maker of the baffard, and they have another fonne, this fecond fonne is called Mulier, that is to fay, lawfull, and hee shall be heirevnto his father: but that other cannot be beine to any man, time or near who his father: but that other cannot be bere to any man, because it is not shown one certaine in the indegement of the Law, who was be father, and for that cause it faid to be no mans fonne, or 'the fonne of the people. And abuses no placel find this addition to them, Bathad eldeft, and Mulier youngest, when they be compared together. Why he though doe called Mulier, so may be that the Latine word Mulier. Why he should be called Mulie, it may be that the Latine word Mulier, which is generally for a woman, e.e. v. It is probable to bring this word from the French lift; so liftee or flowers, because they give tiltue or patling for the in it for a feazon of the water, or by prothef by putting a letter; i.e. S. of the French entire the to the water, or by prothef, by putting a letter, viz. S. to the French, eavier. 1. a fewar on finke, diet. as eau, i. aqua, of drawing away the water. And the Latine word Suera-somtimes vsed in these Commissions, for these draines, is a competent reason for this coniectare. Vide a Fitzh. nat. br. in Oyer ss a competent reason for the contenter. Find a fitten mat or, in Oyer and Terminer. For the former word, Sevenar, I have board of an old French booke, containing the Officers of the King of Englands Court, sait was anticnly gourned, that her whom in Court were now call Sewar, was called Affecting which comments from the French Affects, to fee. fettle, or place, wherein his Office in fetting downe the meat is well expelled. And Sewer, as it signifies an Officer, is by Fleta Latined Assessing (settle downe, as it signifies an Officer, is by Fleta Latined Assessing (settle downe, lib. 2. cap. 10 for, afetter downe, lib, z. cap. 15.

11526 Drarte-chamber, Camera Rellata, is a Chamber at the one end of Westminster Hall, a Anno 25. H. 8. cap. I. It is written the Stetred Chamber. Nowit bath the figne of a Starre over the doore, as you one way enter therein. In this Chamber, every weeke twice, during the Terme time, and the very next day after the Terme, is there a Court held by the Lord chancellour, or Keeper, and other honourable Personages of the Realme. This Court seemeth to have beginning from the Statute 3. H.7. cap. I. whereby it is ordained that the Lord Chancellor and Treasurer of England, for the time being, and the Keeper Chancellot and I requirer of Engano, for the time veing, and the fings Prince Scale, or two of them, calling to them a Bishop, and a Temporall Lord of the Kings most Honourable Councill; and the two Chiefe luftices of the Kings Bench and Common Place, for the time being, or other two Justices in their absence, should have power to call before them, and punish such missioners, as there be mentioned. The faults that they should punish be Routes, Riots, Forgeries, Maintenancies, Embraceries, Perjuries, and such other mislemenor, as are not suffi-ciently prouided for by the Common Law. It appeareth both by Sir Thomas Smith, lib.z. Rep. Ang. cap.4. and by experience of log, that at this day the whole number of the Princes moft. Honoumble Prince County cell, and fuch other Barons Spirituall, or Temporall as be called thither by the Prince, have place in this Court, with these above named of this Court.
